

The Fed Wrecking Ball

In this edition of Evergreen Chartbook, we dive into the Fed's aggressive tightening campaign that has been both the sharpest and fastest on record. We'll then take a close look at how these actions have inflicted significant carnage on the financial markets. While there's no doubt there's been massive collateral damage from highly aggressive fiscal policy drawdowns in fixed income and equities also create opportunities for investors. We'll conclude by discussing how we are reacting to the selloff and where we are deploying capital.
